Your special guide to buses in Swansea, Gower and Mumbles

Visitor attractions in the city, Gower and Mumbles are very well served by bus to and from Swansea. All bus routes leave from Swansea's modern, lively City Bus Station situated adjacent to the Quadrant Shopping Centre in the heart of the city. There are also buses to the wild mountain country to the north of the city (the Mawr) and brief details of these are included. Stylish Metro buses link the train and bus stations with many attractions inn and around the city.

General tips on using the bus

On all buses to and from Gower and Mumbles, tickets are issued by the bus driver. It is possible to purchase First Day and Week ticket vouchers in advance at Swansea or Mumbles Tourist Information Centres at no extra cost. Tickets sold are single (one way) or return (round trip) though for most journeys it is advisable to buy First Day Swansea City tickets - or for most of Gower First Day Swansea Bay tickets. These tickets allow unlimited travel for a day in their areas; weekly tickets are also available. On services 8, 9 & 142, operated by South Wales Transport, First Day tickets are not valid.
